

THE NEWS TRIBUNE

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2009 • THE NEWSPAPER FOR THE SOUTH SOUND • TACOMA, WASHINGTON • 75¢

SOUTHSOUND

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2009 • THENEWSTribune.COM • PAGE A3

DREW PERINE/The News Tribune

A LESSON IN PHYSICS AS WELL

Foss High's Shea Turk, 17, applies youthful ingenuity Monday to loosen the root ball of an apple tree from its plastic container. Students planted more than 30 donated fruit trees, including plum, pear and cherry, on school grounds as an exercise in sustainability, environmental stewardship and nutrition. FruitaBu, makers of organic snacks, sponsors the program with help from The Fruit Tree Planting Foundation.